2. RMA Policy

2.1. Purpose: providing superior services to OPTI's worldwide distributors, instead of distributors' customers

2.2.1 RMA – stands for Return Merchandise Authorization. The after-sales service for UPS and batteries is provided by OPTI to her distributors when goods are shipped within warranty period including 1 more month shipping period (i.e. 25 months. Standard warranty is 2 years and the 1 month for shipping).

2.2.2 For the issue of battery claims, necessary photos, battery date codes and UPS serial numbers are required in the CAR form for proceeding the claim. If the defective batteries are found, OPTI will issue credit notes under warranty period.

2.3. RMA numbers are required to all returned goods to OPTI. Distributors are requested to apply a RMA number prior returning them back to OPTI for repair or swap. All return goods should be well packed (cushion is necessary and the static electricity bag is preferred) and as completely and clearly as distributors can.

2.4. Uncompleted or incorrect requests will be rejected with no RMA number issue.

2.5. Required information in CAR Form:

- a. product model name
- b. serial number
- c. symptom description in details

2.6. If received items and its quantity cannot match up what the CAR illustrates, OPTI service engineer will inform distributors to make an update in CAR form. Otherwise, the unapplied items will be returned to original distributors without repair.

2.7. Products will not be in our warranty when OPTI receives the returned units with manually broken or lack of components.

2.8. If the defect is defined by OPTI service engineer to be caused by distributor's improper use or operation, OPTI will charge distributors for repair. The RMA service charges are the sum of the material, labor costs and return freight fees.

2.9. OPTI will pay for both freight fees if 2nd RMA occurs.

2.10. Non-OPTI items will be returned back to senders without repair and prior notice; distributors should pay for return freight too.

3. DOA Policy

3.1. DOA – stands for Dead On Arrival. This is the after-sales service offered by OPTI to her distributors when shipped goods don't work at all within 60 days by sea or 30 days by air/ land after invoice date.

3.2. OPTI provides repair or one-on-one swap service for DOA as long as the failure reasons confirmed by OPTI.

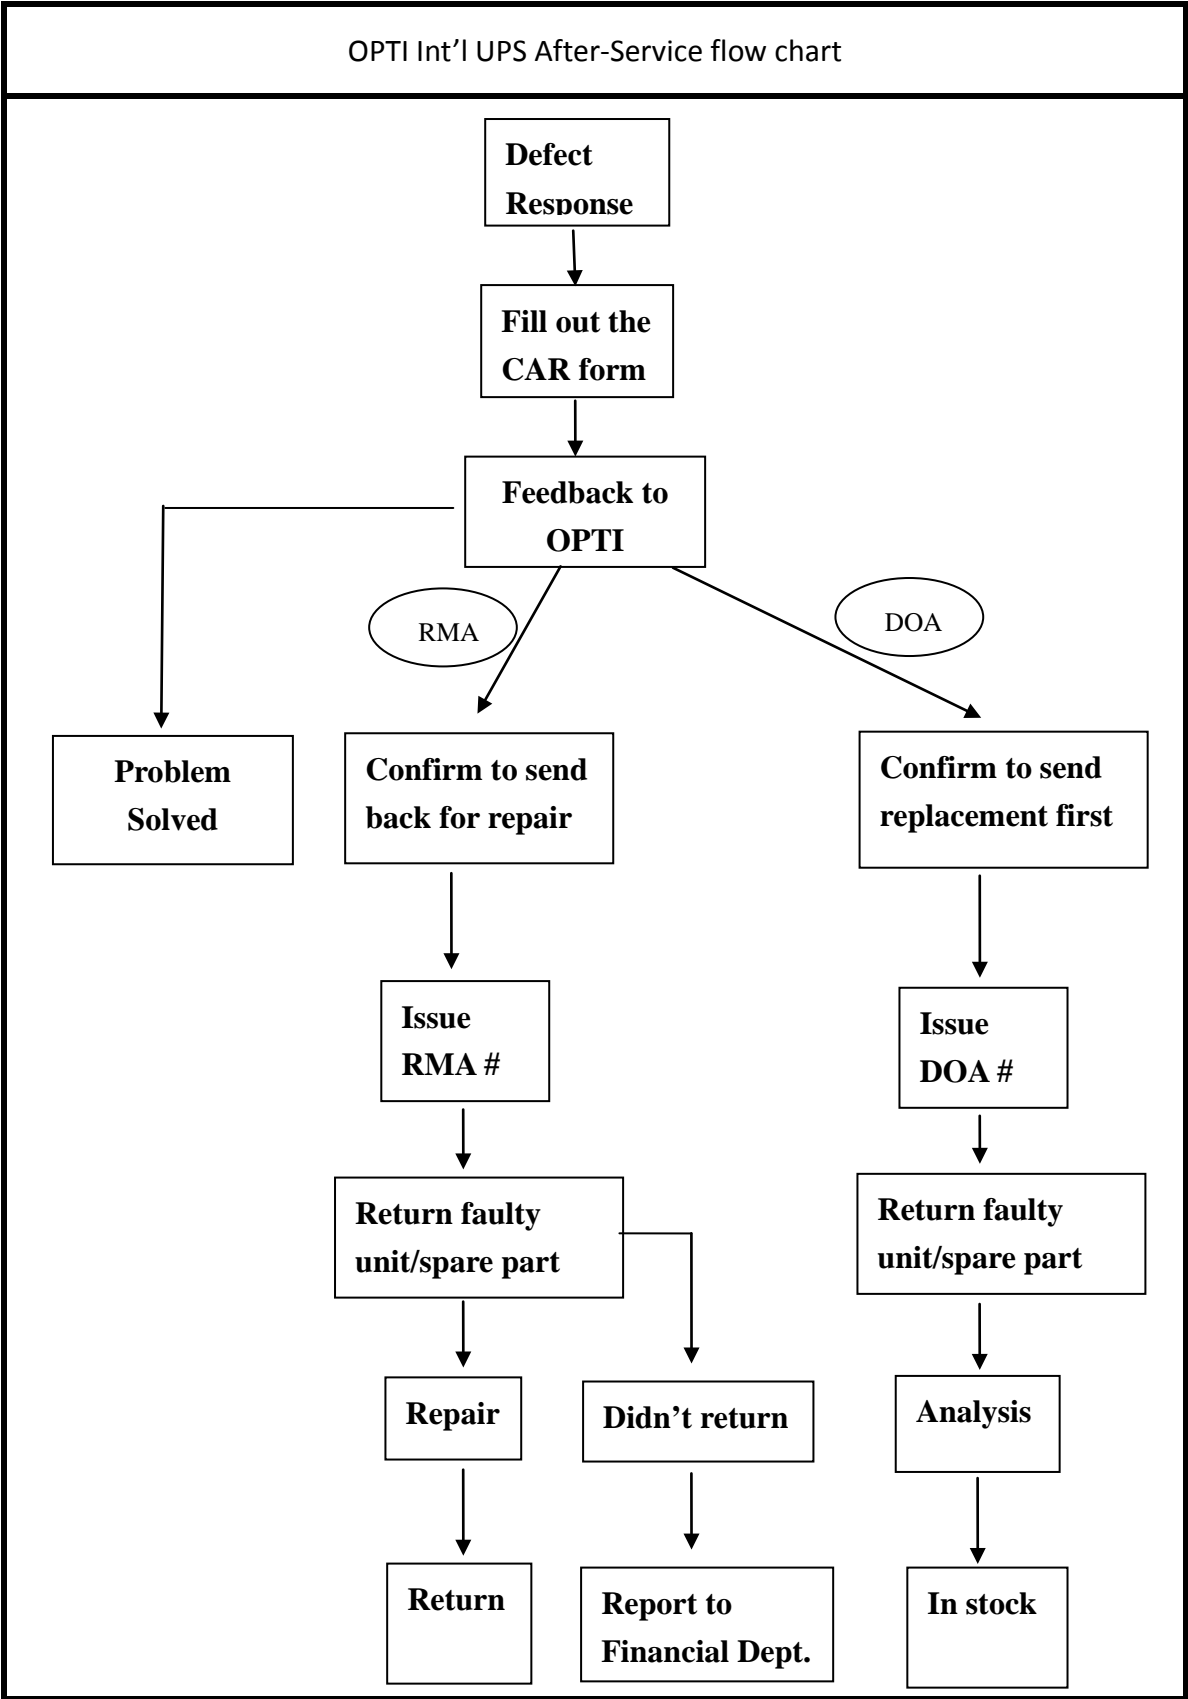

3.3. OPTI will pay both freight fees for DOA items.

3.4 RMA numbers are required to all returned goods to OPTI. Distributors are requested to apply a RMA number prior returning them back to OPTI for repair or swap.

3.5 All returned goods should be well packed (cushion is necessary and the static electricity bag is preferred) and as completely and clearly as distributors can.

3.6. Uncompleted or incorrect requests will be rejected with no RMA number issue.

4. After-Service Flow Chart

5. Packing

5.1. RMA number should be clearly marked on the outside of package, along with a detailed packing list attached on the outside of each carton.

5.2. All items returned to OPTI without a RMA number marked on outside box will be returned to original distributors.

5.3. OPTI will not be responsible for the damage or loss during transportation by courier or postal services. Proper and safe pack will be highly recommended in order to avoid shaking and vibration.

6. Shipping

6.1. Shipment of returned items for repair or swap are suggested to be insured by distributors via a carrier of their choice the freight charge for returning the defective items and it needs to be prepaid by distributors. OPTI will pay return freight while returning well-repaired items back to distributors.

6.2. Any special delivery required may be available upon request as additional cost, covered by distributors.

6.3. Items sent without prepaid freight will be returned to original sender directly without handling.

6.4. Any damage in transit is not covered under warranty. OPTI is not liable for delays or errors on the part of any carriers.

6.5. Distributors are suggested to advise OPTI about the shipping information before shipping defective items. And distributors will be suggested not to ship accessories back with returned items.

7. Technical Training

7.1. OPTI may hold annual technical trainings if necessary around Computex in Taipei. Training course is free of charge. Distributors shall pay for its own engineer's transportation and accommodation fees.

7.2. On-site training support shall be requested by distributors, who shall pay for OPTI engineer's transportation and accommodation fees.

7.3. OPTI will send engineer to distributors' sites in urgent cases, such as abnormal quality issue, unexpected epidemic problem and etc. The resulted expenses will be negotiated and shared by OPTI and the distributors.

8. Technical Support

8.1. FAE in OPTI Service Dept. will respond to any technical issue upon distributors present to OPTI and should offer solutions via e-mail, fax or phone call.
